

We're recruiting now for Fulfilment Associates

Are you 19+, unemployed and interested in joining Amazon as a Fulfilment Associate where your job will be to receive, pick, pack and ship parcels?

We are looking for people...

- with a strong work ethic
- with sharp attention to detail
- with the ability to meet targets in a fast-paced environment
- aged 19+ and unemployed
- fit enough to lift and move products of up to 15 kilos in weight
- have good English & Maths skills

Who are able to...

- work either permanent day shift or permanent night shift on a 4 days on 3 days off Rota Basis

If you're unemployed and 19+, Pre-Recruitment Training is available to help give you the best chance at interview. Two week training courses will run on several dates in July and will include:

- Product picking and packing, H&S, Working at Heights, Teamwork and Interview Skills

Successful completion of the course guarantees an employer interview.

Please note: All job offers are subject to a disclosure and barring service check (the new name for a CRB check.) We always say honesty is the best policy. Even with a little history we'll try our best to see if we can support you onto this program. All conversations are treated in the strictest confidence.
