

Book club for Black History Month.

There are lots of different books of fiction to cultural history that can you learn more. Waterstones have put together a Black History Month of books that celebrates under the following themes: Voices for change, Jhalak Prize 2020, Black and British, Remarkable Lives, Staying Power, Classic Fiction, Contemporary Fiction, Young, Gifted and Black and Young Adult Fiction.

Why I'm no longer talking to white people about race - Reni Eddo-Lodge

Black Flamingo - Dean Atta

Natives - Akala

Rise Up - Stormzy

Becoming - Michelle Obama

The Whole Picture - Alice Procter

The Colour Purple - Alice Walker (also a film)

The Girl with the Louding Voice - Abi Dare

Lot - Bryan Washington

To kill a mockingbird - Harper Lee

A Thousand Splendid Suns - Khaled Hosseini

And the Mountains Echoed - Khaled Hosseini

Love - Toni Morrison

I know why the Caged Bird Sings - Maya Angelou

White Teeth - Zadie Smith

The Help - Kathryn Stockett (also a film)

White Fragility - Robin DiAngelo